Case No. 3:11CR035(3)

JUDGE WALTER H. RICE

DECISION AND ENTRY FINDING DEFENDANT IN VIOLATION OF SUPERVISED RELEASE, REVOKING SAME AND IMPOSING SENTENCE, WITH FURTHER RE-IMPOSED PERIOD OF SUPERVISED RELEASE TO FOLLOW, UPON STATED CONDITIONS; RIGHT OF APPEAL EXPLAINED
AND UNDERSTOOD; NEITHER COUNSEL FOR THE GOVERNMENT NOR FOR THE DEFENDANT HAD ANY PROCEDURAL OR SUBSTANTIVE
OBJECTIONS TO THIS COURT'S DISPOSITION; TERMINATION ENTRY

On March 14, 2019, the Defendant, having previously been found in violation of his most recent period of supervised release, a status that began December 4, 2017, appeared in open Court for final disposition.

Pursuant to the record made on the aforesaid March 14, 2019, the Defendant's supervised release was revoked and he was remanded to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States, the Bureau of Prisons, for a period of eight months, with credit given for all allowable pre-revocation jail time. The eight-month sentence imposed on March 14, 2019 (less any pre-revocation jail time credit) is to be followed by a five-year period of supervised release, less any credit to which he is entitled, upon the conditions that he discharge any presently undischarged conditions of supervision initially imposed; that he be enrolled, upon an immediate basis, in a residential drug treatment program immediately upon completion of his term of imprisonment; that, following the completion of the residential drug treatment program, he is to reside at a sober living facility as directed by the Probation Officer; and, finally, that he adhere to each and every aspect of the attached Supervision Plan, dated April 3, 2019, to which he has agreed by signing same on April 3, 2019.

Following the above, the Defendant was orally explained his right of appeal, and he indicated an understanding of same.

Neither counsel for the Government nor for the Defendant had any procedural or substantive objections to this Court's sentence.

The captioned cause is ordered terminated upon the docket records of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio, Western Division, at Dayton.
